

Redress schemes for abuse and misconduct - hear from our experts

The IICSA has a number of investigative streams, and one of its areas of focus is Accountability and Reparations.

 21 May 2019

The IICSA has a number of investigative streams, and one of its areas of focus is Accountability and Reparations. It has already recommended that the Government sets up a Payment Scheme for former Child Migrants, and the Government has acted upon it.

Is a redress scheme the way forward for abuse claims? How might it impact your organisation? We are helping more and more organisations explore the pros and cons of redress schemes so that they can decide whether a scheme is right for them and what the longer term impacts might be.

In this webinar recording, hear our experts share what they have learned about redress and compensation schemes around the world and in the UK.
