

State aid - getting the basics right

This webinar will set out the basics of state aid rules and is accessible to lawyers and non-lawyers. We will work through practical examples and provide tips on how state aid assessments can be streamlined to avoid the delays and disruptions often associated with state aid compliance.

 02 March 2020

Many of our clients provide or receive funding and support which will be classed as state aid. From local authorities making grants to local charities, to government agencies providing national funding programmes and universities applying for R&D funding, it is crucial for funders and recipients to comply with state aid law.

This webinar sets out the basics of state aid rules and is accessible to lawyers and non-lawyers. Practical examples are discussed and tips are provided on how state aid assessments can be streamlined to avoid the delays and disruptions often associated with state aid compliance.

.embed-container { position: relative; padding-bottom: 56.25%; height: 0; overflow: hidden; max-width: 100%; } .embed-container iframe, .embed-container object, .embed-container embed { position: absolute; top: 0; left: 0; width: 100%; height: 100%; }

For more useful training and resources, visit our LinkedIn showcase page

Speakers

Alex Kynoch

Partner

Alex leads our subsidy control team and is recognised as a leading expert in this complex field. He also specialises in procurement and public sector clean energy and regeneration projects. Clients appreciate his ability to translate complex legal issues into pragmatic and clear advice.

alex.kynoch@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 976 6511

Contact

Alex Kynoch

Partner

alex.kynoch@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 976 6511

Related expertise

Subsidy control