

Lincoln Darlington

Senior Associate

Manchester

lincoln.darlington@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)3300452288

Lincoln mainly focuses on real estate support on corporate transactions across the whole firm, and has wide ranging experience throughout his career in property development (especially in residential and care sectors), landlord and tenant (acting for a number of well-known institutional landlords and business tenants), secured lending for a number of different banks and other well-known financial institutions, LPA receivership real estate work for a number of well-known banks and their appointed receivers, and investment property work, again for a number of well-known investors and pension funds.