William is a partner and head of Browne Jacobson's Irish Corporate team. William has extensive experience in company law matters, corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, restructuring, venture capital and private equity investments.

He also advises many high potential growth companies and innovation driven enterprises with legal issues relating to scaling, fundraising, corporate governance and day-to-day commercial matters. He has been involved in many of Ireland's most significant equity financings and M&A transactions in recent years and has experience across a range of sectors including technology, life sciences, retail, education, manufacturing and aviation.

Having worked in the Irish corporate law market for over 12 years, William has built a strong reputation due to his commercial understanding of his client's needs and a solution driven approach. Prior to joining Browne Jacobson in January 2024, William worked for international law firm Maples Group for over 8 years and prior to that in a large Irish corporate law firm. He has also been named as a key lawyer with The Legal 500 EMEA.

Testimonials

"What we've particularly valued is their proactive approach. They don't just respond to our needs; they anticipate them. Their preemptive guidance on potential legal hurdles has saved us time and resources, allowing us to focus on our core business functions."

Legal 500 EMEA 2024,

"In a market where legal firms can often seem indistinguishable, these individuals bring a unique blend of technical excellence, business acumen, and personal engagement that sets them head and shoulders above the rest."

Legal 500 EMEA 2024,

"The legal team we've engaged truly distinguishes themselves through a combination of deep sector expertise and unparalleled responsiveness. They have consistently demonstrated the ability to anticipate our needs, delivering results that go beyond standard legal advice to provide strategic insight into our business challenges."
