

Browne Jacobson Ireland ranks again in Legal 500 EMEA across multiple practice areas

02 April 2025

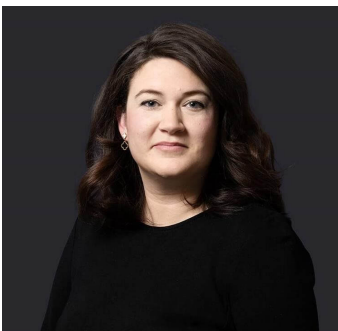

Browne Jacobson Ireland LLP have achieved rankings again in 2025 across intellectual property and dispute resolution in the Legal 500 EMEA 2025. The firm is also listed among 'Firms to watch' for their growing corporate practice and for information technology.

The firm has won numerous exciting client mandates, establishing itself as a key player in the Irish legal market, advising on complex, international high-value transactions such as The Range's acquisition of Homebase and McCain's acquisition of Strong Roots. In addition, the firm has acted in several complex high profile international disputes including successfully challenging IP claims made by easyGroup before the Irish Commercial Court and is defending Scania in complex antitrust litigation.

Legal 500 EMEA is one of the most respected and comprehensive guides to the EMEA legal sector and its rankings are based on a wide range of criteria, including providing the most cutting edge and innovative advice to corporate counsel.
