

CQC and health and care regulatory update - June 2019

Carl-May Smith provides an enforcement and prosecutions update including looking at recent prosecutions of Registered Managers.

19 June 2019

Enforcement and prosecutions update

We provide an enforcement and prosecutions update including looking at recent prosecutions of Registered Managers as well as discussing the latest CQC guidance such as Continuing Regulatory Histories, the CQC's interim report on the use of segregation in learning disability and autism services and the potential implications of the allegations of abuse at Whorlton Hall.

Contact

Carl May-Smith
Barrister (Partner)

carl.may-smith@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 934 2024

Related expertise

Health law

Regulatory

Safety and learning in healthcare