

Browne Jacobson advises Triangle Fire Systems on £9m BGF investment

Browne Jacobson have successfully advised Triangle Fire Systems, its shareholders and management team on a £9m investment by the Business Growth Fund (BGF).

12 April 2022

Browne Jacobson have successfully advised Triangle Fire Systems, its shareholders and management team on a £9m investment by the Business Growth Fund (BGF).

Founded in 2006 by three brothers (Colin, Nigel and Steve Chantler), Hastings based Triangle Fire Systems is one of the UK's leading providers in the design, manufacture and supply of bespoke residential and commercial fire sprinkler systems, with a particular specialism in high rise buildings, care homes, heritage listed building and apartment blocks.

BGF's investment will support the company's long term buy and build growth strategy, service line diversification and people growth plans.

The Browne Jacobson corporate team advising Triangle Fire Systems, its shareholders and management team comprised Mark Hughes, Ryan Brown and Harpinder Nahl. The team was closely supported by Nicola Hollick (employment), Andrew Noble (tax), and banking specialists Beth Nixon and Melanie Hilton. Other advisers included Clearwater International (lead adviser to Triangle Fire), K&L Gates (legal adviser to BGF) and Azets (financial and tax due diligence provider to BGF).

Colin Chantler, CEO at Triangle Fire Systems said: "We are delighted to announce this funding from BGF which will help us to grow our reach and expand our services across the residential and commercial property market.

"As a family-run enterprise, it was important to us that our investor understood this dynamic, and BGF's track record of successfully scaling family-run businesses means that we can continue to grow in a way that works for us.

"We have been impressed with the support and advice we received from the team at Browne Jacobson, which was always clear, commercial and pragmatic."

Corporate finance senior associate Ryan Brown added:

"We are delighted to have advised Triangle Fire Systems and its shareholders on securing this significant investment from BGF. Colin, Nigel and Steve have built a fantastic business and together with the experienced management team and support from BGF and the new non-exec chair, I am sure that it will continue to flourish."

Browne Jacobson's national corporate finance practice operates from four of the firm's five office network including Birmingham, London, Manchester and Nottingham. It is supported by over 30 corporate and banking & finance expert lawyers delivering complex layered corporate and banking transactions. The team advises domestic and international companies from fast growing start-ups to blue chip corporations on all stages of the business life cycle from capital and finance raising, through to mergers and acquisitions, and ultimately to succession or exit planning with particular expertise in the private equity market.

Kara Shadbolt

Senior PR & Communication Manager

kara.shadbolt@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 1111

Related expertise

Services

Commercial law

Corporate