

Jeanne Kelly recognised in the list of Top 100 people in Irish Tech by the Business Post

01 July 2024

Jeanne Kelly, a co-founding partner of Browne Jacobson's Dublin office, has been recognised as one of the Top 100 people in Irish Tech by the Business Post, one of Ireland's largest newspapers renowned for its comprehensive coverage of business and technology news.

With over 25 years of experience leading a commercial tech law practice, Jeanne is a highly respected commercial lawyer who has played an integral role in the international development of Browne Jacobson. She advises private and public sector clients on technology, intellectual property, and data privacy law, and has led data protection compliance programmes for some of Ireland's leading corporations as well as for multinationals with Irish operations. Jeanne also has extensive experience in large outsourcing projects, supply arrangements, and intellectual asset management.

Upon receiving the Top 100 People in Irish Tech recognition, Jeanne commented, "It is a great honour for me to be recognised in the Top 100 People in Irish Tech list and I'm in great company. This acknowledgement reflects the hard work and dedication of our team at Browne Jacobson Ireland and our commitment to providing technical expertise across the tech sector in Ireland and internationally."

Jeanne's recognition as a leading individual in technology by the Legal 500 in 2024 and her ranking in the Chambers Europe Legal Guide 2024 are also testament to her significant contributions to the field.

Browne Jacobson Ireland, led by its founding partners Jeanne Kelly, Ciarán Markey, Declan Cushley, and Anthony Nagle, has continued to grow since its launch as the firm's first overseas office in 2022, offering a high level of service to domestic and international clients.

For more information, visit:

Browne Jacobson Ireland LLP →

Key contact

Henrietta Scott

Head of Marketing

PRTeam@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2299

Related expertise

Commercial law

Data protection and privacy

Intellectual property

International