

Social Mobility Incubator webinar: Preparing your stakeholders

11 February 2025

This webinar took place on February 11 2025 and is now available on-demand.

Browne Jacobson, proudly ranked joint number one employer in the Social Mobility Index 2024, invites you to a year-long event series designed to help you develop and implement an effective social mobility strategy.

This session is the starting point for designing your social mobility strategy. We explored:

- How to identify who within your organisation should be part of the conversation.
- How you can engage different stakeholders on the topic of social mobility.
- What information you might need from various stakeholders and how to identify any gaps.

Who should attend?

This webinar is open to anyone involved in driving social mobility within their organisation. It's particularly beneficial for organisations just beginning to shape their social mobility strategy, but offer valuable tips and insights for those at any stage of the journey. The session is tailored for organisations of all sizes across both the private and public sectors.

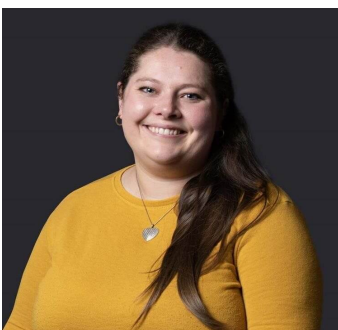

We look forward to supporting you on your social mobility journey.
