

Browne Jacobson announces fifteen partner and legal director promotions for 2025

01 April 2025

UK and Ireland law firm Browne Jacobson has announced its promotions round for 2025, with nine new partners and six promoted to legal director. The promotions come into effect from 1 April 2025.

The firm has also announced the promotion of 37 lawyers to principal associate roles, in the first full cohort following the introduction of the role last year, and 21 lawyers to senior associate.

The promotions span the firm's Birmingham, Manchester, Nottingham, Exeter, and London offices, and continues to build upon the 15 partner and legal director promotions from last year.

Richard Medd, Managing Partner at Browne Jacobson, said:

"We are proud to announce the promotion of a number of outstanding individuals, each of whom has made a significant contribution to the success of the firm. These promotions are not only a reflection of their exceptional talent and dedication, but also a testament to the strength of our culture and our long-standing commitment to investing in our people."

"At Browne Jacobson, we take great care to grow in a way that reflects our values. We believe in enabling ambition, fostering inclusive leadership, and providing a platform for our people to thrive at every stage of their careers. These latest promotions demonstrate the depth and strength of the talent pathways we have across the firm, and the trust we place in our colleagues to help shape the future of Browne Jacobson."
