

In-House Lawyers: Brexit, data transfers and employment

Covid-19 and the challenges associated with it grind on into a second wave. Not only that but there's the prospect of Brexit and a looming recession ahead. It would be entirely forgivable not to be on top of the law right now. Watch our on-demand video where we discuss employment, furlough and data transfers.

20 November 2020

This webinar took place on Monday 09 November 2020 and is now available on-demand.

Please register or click "already registered" if you've registered previously.

So Covid-19 and the challenges associated with it grind on into a second wave. Not only that but there's the prospect of Brexit and a looming recession ahead. It would be entirely forgivable not to be on top of the law right now. After all – there's plenty else to worry about.

Please see our speakers and the topics that were discussed below:

- Data, International data transfers post-Schrems and ahead of Brexit - Richard Nicholas
- The dynamic workforce, monitoring of employees, the end of furlough? - James Tait

This session focuses on practical solutions that you can utilise from home in your agreements and your dealings with business. The session will last around an hour and will also include an opportunity to ask any questions that you may have. Please feel free to also send any questions you have in advance.

Speakers

Richard Nicholas

Partner

Richard specialises in commercial, IT and outsourcing agreements, complex projects for private and public sector clients, collaboration, distribution & agency contracts, e-commerce and consumer law.

richard.nicholas@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)121 237 3992

James Tait

Partner

james.tait@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)121 237 3999

Contact

Richard Nicholas

Partner

richard.nicholas@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)121 237 3992

Related expertise

Employment

