

How to commercialise your IP: licensing, spin outs and JVs

Our expert panel, comprised of IP and corporate law specialists, will be discussing IP commercialisation strategies, their benefits and pitfalls, drawing on experience across the private, public and higher education sectors.

24 October 2019

Our expert panel, comprised of IP and corporate law specialists, discuss IP commercialisation strategies, their benefits and pitfalls, drawing on experience across the private, public and higher education sectors. Our panel explore different structural models to exploitation, in particular purely contractual joint ventures and separate spin outs/exploitation vehicles.

We will consider the life cycle of these models from formation to operational matters and exit or termination of the JV/spin out focusing on the key provisions required for a successful exploitation strategy
