

Shared Insights: The impact of Ockenden and implementation of the IEAs from ward to Board

01 June 2022

In our latest Shared Insights session chaired by Sian Brown and Rachael Morris we were pleased to be joined by Kate Cheshire, Head of Midwifery and Neonatal Services, The Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust, Dr Brian McKaig, Chief Medical Officer, The Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust, Sarah Blackwell, Fetal monitoring Lead, University Hospitals of Leicester NHS Trust (UHL) and Catherine Hopley, In-patient Matron, Barnsley Hospital NHS Foundation Trust.

They discussed the final Ockenden report, the Midwifery Perspective, the Board Perspective, and wider national initiatives, Monitoring May and the National Fetal Monitoring Network.

Download full note ↓

/BrowneJacobson/media/Media/Imported/Browne Jacobson Shared Insights The impact of Ockenden and implementation of the IEAs from Ward to.PDF?ext=.PDF

Contact

Damian Whitlam

Partner

damian.whitlam@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2332

Nicola Evans

Partner

Nicola.Evans@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2962

Related expertise

Clinical negligence

Health law

Safety and learning in healthcare

Service reconfiguration, consultation, transformation and decommissioning