

Monthly insurance policy wording update

The Word, March 2025

25 March 2025

For our March edition of The Word we cover a range of topics of interest from across the insurance sector.

In light of recent events, we take a look at some high-profile aviation incidents and the implications of this for the insurance industry. We also consider what lessons insurers can learn from the FCA's most recent report regarding vulnerable customers.

We also consider the impact of Sky & Mace v Riverstone Managing Agency & Ors and the potential impact on insurance policy wording, and secondly the decision in Lonham Group Ltd v Scotbeef Ltd which provides useful insights into the importance of distinguishing between representation and warranties.

Finally, we explore the proposed abolition of 'no-fault' evictions, and the new UK death rate's 'record low'.

We hope you find this edition informative and insightful.

Tim

Contents

- Time to review if your aviation insurance policy wordings are up to scratch? →
- Improving outcomes for vulnerable customers: Insights and recommendations from the FCA →
- Will the decision in Sky & Mace v Riverstone Managing Agency & Ors impact insurance policy wording? →
- Lonham Group Ltd v Scotbeef Ltd: Distinguishing representations and warranties →
- Scrapping of no-fault evictions: What it means for Insurers →
- UK death rate reaches "A new record low" →

Key contact

Tim Johnson

Partner

tim.johnson@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 976 6557

Related expertise

Coverage disputes and policy interpretation

Insurance claims defence

Policy drafting and distribution