

Sian Rose

Associate

 Nottingham

sian.rose@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 934 2011

Sian is a senior associate in our corporate finance team and was the only corporate lawyer in the Midlands to be named as an “Associate to Watch” in Chambers for 2021, retained in 2022 and 2023.

Sian specialises in mergers and acquisitions, trade disposals, private equity transactions, company reorganisations and corporate governance arrangements and has been involved in some of the firm’s most high-profile transactions.

Highlights of Sian’s experience include advising the management of Database Service Provider Global Limited on a secondary management buyout with investment from YFM Private Equity; advising the management of MSQ Partners Group on a management buyout with investment from LDC; advising LDC on its acquisition of global advertising company, Blis; and advising the Myers Family Office on its purchase of Vian Marketing Limited, the holding company of the popular paddle board brand, Red Paddle Co.

Sian is also a member of the firm’s international group and is an active member of the Pangea network, including being a board member of Pangea Next. Sian not only drives the international ambitions of the firm, but also assists with driving and growing the Pangea network and has many international connections.

Expertise

Energy and infrastructure

Financial services

Health and life sciences

Insurance

Manufacturing and industrials

Retail, consumer and logistics

Technology

Featured experience

Conn3ct

Advised leading communications expert, Connect Managed Services (UK) Limited (Connect), on its acquisition of customer care solution provider, Service CX Limited for an undisclosed sum.

MSQ Partners Group

Advised the management of the MSQ Partners group on a management buyout with investment from LDC and provides ongoing day-to-day support to the MSQ Partners group.

Brokerbilty Group

Advised the selling shareholders of national Chartered broking group Brokerbilty Holdings on the sale of the Clear Group who are supported by ECI Partners.

Myers Family Office

Advised the Myers Family Office, on its purchase of Vian Marketing, the holding company for leading stand-up paddleboard business, Tushingham Sails which is best known in the market for its Red Paddle Co brand.

Testimonials

"Sian is taking on ever more work and is a high-quality, diligent individual. She is very responsive and definitely somebody I want on my side of the fence."

Chambers and Partners 2023,

"Sian is taking on ever more work and is a high-quality, diligent individual."

Chambers and Partners ,