

William Golding

Trainee Solicitor

 Nottingham

william.golding@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)3300452567

William Golding is one of our Trainee Solicitors who has been with us since August 2022 when he was a Legal Assistant. William has previous experience in litigation and is continuously building upon his skillset and knowledge across all of our practice areas.

William is a pragmatic individual who seeks every opportunity to get involved in a broad range of work and has been able to build upon existing client relationships through his sympathetic and individualistic approach.

Expertise

Banking and finance

Clinical negligence

Dispute resolution and litigation