Isabella is an Associate Solicitor in one of our specialist maternity claim teams, within our Health Advisory and Litigation department. Isabella has worked in-house for several NHS Trusts and has gained experience in managing both inquests and clinical negligence claims.

Isabella is located in the Exeter office and completed her training contract at Browne Jacobson LLP. Having thoroughly enjoyed both the first and last seats of her training contract in health and litigation Isabella has returned to the team as a qualified Solicitor.

Isabella has developed a strong professional relationship with NHS clients during various secondment opportunities provided by Browne Jacobson LLP and values being able to build strong networks and relationships with clients across the South West.
