Miriam is an associate in our employment department. She trained at Browne Jacobson and qualified in October 2022.

Miriam advises clients on a broad range of both contentious and non-contentious employment law issues, as well as the employment law aspects of corporate transactions. Miriam has experience advising clients in the education sector, including how to handle terminations, disciplinary processes, employee grievances and investigations.

Miriam is a member of the Employment Lawyers Association.

Miriam is also involved in some of the firm's social mobility initiatives, including the FAIRE programme which offers work experience to students from underrepresented backgrounds.
