Georgia is a second-year trainee solicitor currently working in the Manchester employment team. During her time at Browne Jacobson, Georgia has worked in the Commercial Health and Inquest and Advisory teams assisting on a wide variety of health sector needs.

During her time in Commercial Health, Georgia worked on corporate mergers and acquisitions as well as commercial contracts for large health care clients. Leading on from her experience in Commercial Health, Georgia joined the Inquest and Advisory team within the Health, Advisory and Litigation department. Within this team, Georgia assisted on Court of Protection matters including welfare applications and serious medical treatment cases as well as representing health care clients at inquests. Georgia has also been on secondment to work within an in-house health service legal and complaints team.

Prior to starting at Browne Jacobson, Georgia studied History at the University of Liverpool and completed her Graduate Diploma in Law and Legal Practice Course at BPP University.
