Public law and litigation specialist Julia joined Browne Jacobson in 2022 to support our public sector clients.

Julia is an Associate solicitor in our Public Law team. She specialises in public law matters and is experienced in providing advice to central government, local government, the Welsh Government and other public authorities. She regularly advises on lawful decision making, performance of public functions and vires.

Julia previously worked in-house for Cardiff Council's legal team for 18 years and has wide litigation experience dealing with regulatory prosecutions, judicial review claims, statutory appeals and civil litigation.
