

Rebecca Cullen

Senior Associate

 Manchester

rebecca.cullen@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)330 045 2545

Rebecca is a senior associate in our real estate team specialising in acting for schools and other educational institutions.

Rebecca has gained experience working at international and national law firms for a variety of clients from registered providers to private developers and national housebuilders and therefore has a broad knowledge of property matters. Rebecca advises on all aspects of education land including academy conversions and transfers, site acquisition, disposals and landlord and tenant matters.

Expertise

Academy conversions

Academy sponsorships and MATs

Higher education property management and real estate development

Regeneration

School land and buildings