

Katie Migda

Associate

 Nottingham

katie.migda@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)3300452305

Katie is an associate within the financial and professional risks team in our Nottingham office. Katie is an experienced litigator with over eight years' experience in defending insurer clients in civil matters.

Katie works with insurers and their insureds on a variety of claims, she has experience in defending landlords, accountants, Court Enforcement Agents, and other professionals.

Katie brings her experience in the areas of personal injury and clinical negligence to the table, using her knowledge and skills to get the best outcome for clients.

Expertise

Dispute resolution and litigation

Professional indemnity

Property damage and business interruption