

Richard Cox

Partner

 London, Nottingham

richard.cox@brownejacobson.com

+44 (0)115 976 6135

Richard is head of our national corporate team and leads our international group. He specialises in corporate finance and works with a wide range of clients across a number of sectors. He primarily advises on mergers and acquisitions, management buy-outs and buy-ins and private equity deals as well as advising on joint ventures and shareholders arrangements. He has advised on some of the firm's most high-profile transactions.

Richard has advised many overseas companies on cross-border mergers and investments and leads our international group focused on helping to service our clients' requirements overseas and advising our overseas clients on their English law requirements. He is also currently the firm's representative on the board of our international network, Pangea Net.

He has broad sector experience across a number of sectors but with particular experience in technology, retail and food and drink.

Expertise

Fashion and beauty

Food and drink

Technology

Featured experience

Investment into Cooper Parry

Successfully advised the partners of leading accountancy firm Cooper Parry on the agreement for Dutch based firm, Waterland Private Equity to invest in the business.

Sale of Charles Pugh

Advised the shareholders on the sale of UK market leading automotive glass specialists, Charles Pugh Holdings to Swedish listed company, Cary Group for an undisclosed sum.

Advising Sephora on acquisition of Feelunique

Advised omnichannel prestige beauty retailer Sephora (owned by LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton Group, the world's leading luxury group) on its acquisition of Feelunique, a major online prestige beauty retailer in the United Kingdom.

Adris Ltd - MicroCAD

Advising French owned Adris Limited on the acquisition of the entire issued share capital of MicroCAD Computer Aided Design Specialists Limited.

Testimonials

"Richard Cox is a quality partner."

Chambers 2025,